LIVERY SOCIETY Chocolate Tasting

Tuesday 6th April. 6pm.

Following on from the success of the Cheese & Wine Tasting event that we held after the Livery Society AGM last month, we felt it might be a good idea to mark the Easter Holiday by holding a virtual Chocolate Tasting.....

Hotel Chocolat will be our host (over Zoom), and we will taste our way through a box of 14 different chocolates.....

Whilst this is a chocolate tasting event, I felt it might be a good opportunity, for those who are interested, to attempt to match some different wines with the chocolates; chocolate is notoriously difficult to match with any wine ..... – I find that Sauternes typically isn't quite sweet enough - but don't let that put you off...

Here are a few ideas:-

- Port
- Maury, Domaine Poudroux (which was the sweet red we had with the blue cheese in the Cheese Tasting). Try Waitrose.
- Naudé Natural Sweet Mourvèdre (red). Winefinder lists Handford Wines (London) and Bonafide Wines (Dorset).
- Campbells Rutherglen Muscat. Try Waitrose, Majestic.
- Semillon. Tesco's finest. 'orange peel, apricots'....
- Tokaji.
- also Spirits e.g. whisky, rum.

It promises to be both interesting and a lot of fun – just like the Cheese & Wine tasting was.....

COST. £ 20 for the first box of chocolates, and £12.95 for each additional box at the same address.

Guests are very welcome – as ever with Livery Society events – so do please extend the invitation to other households /friends and family.

DO let me know if you have any questions. elvidgemole@aol.com

Best etc,
