Dear Christopher and Christina,

Thank you so much for joining the Lady Mayoress and myself in The Lord Mayor's Appeal Samarathon team. We thoroughly enjoyed walking and jogging 26.2 miles each over the course of July and we very much hope you did too.

Thanks to our combined fundraising efforts, I'm delighted to let you know that The Lord Mayor's Appeal team has raised over £10,000 for Samaritans, one of four inspirational charities that The Lord Mayor's Appeal supports.

Our partnership with the Samaritans has enabled them to develop and roll out to over 16,000 individuals in companies a revolutionary online wellbeing programme for employees in London and beyond. The Wellbeing in the Workplace programme brings Samaritans' expertise into the workplace, giving employees the skills and confidence to manage their emotional wellbeing, build resilience, and to listen and support those around them.

In the wake of COVID-19 they have successfully adapted their ways of working and are continuing to support their beneficiaries in what for many has been a very challenging time. That is why your support is more important than ever.

Your contribution to the Appeal is enabling us to create A Better City for All for which we are extremely grateful.

Yours sincerely,
