

Baking Industry Awards 2024

It was a stellar occasion at the Royal Lancaster Hotel on October 25th when the cream of the baking industry came together to celebrate the passion, talent and excellence that marks the production of a myriad of bakery products.

Master Baker Charles Joseph was in attendance, meeting bakers and business owners from all around the country. He also met with some delegates from the 2024 Company bursary courses; one of whom, Naomi Spaven, was the winner of the British Baker Rising Star Award.

Amy North, Editor of British Baker, welcomes everyone and introduces the evening

Scott Mills, Radio 2 presenter and television personality, announced and presented the awards

The Master enjoys a nice quiet dinner along with 520 other guests, including Liveryman Stephen Ville!

A very proud moment for Naomi as she accepts her award from Scott Mills

Liveryman Jonathan Mellows and Montana Bakery were also honoured, winning the 2024 Bakery Manufacturer of the Year award.

The Master congratulates Naomi on her success.
